

Curious Cumbria

SUPPORTING LEARNING TO INSPIRE PUPILS

EXPLORE South Cumbria's CULTURAL LEARNING HOTSPOTS

Wordsworth Trust, Grasmere

Illuminating literature and history and exploring Wordsworth's life and poetry through creative writing, object-handling and story-telling.
01539 435544

Brantwood, Conistown

Explore geology, geography, and music in a tactile and multi-sensory encounter with a slate lithophone.
01539 441396

Ruskin Museum, Conistown

Pupils take pride in local heroes Donal Campbell and John Ruskin, and explore the geology and art collections in a spectacular setting.
01539 441164

Stott Park Bobbin Mill, Ulverston

Explore this unique mill site with original machinery. The interactive trail and teacher's kit helps pupils discover what it was like to work here.
01539 531087

Furness Abbey Museum, Barrow

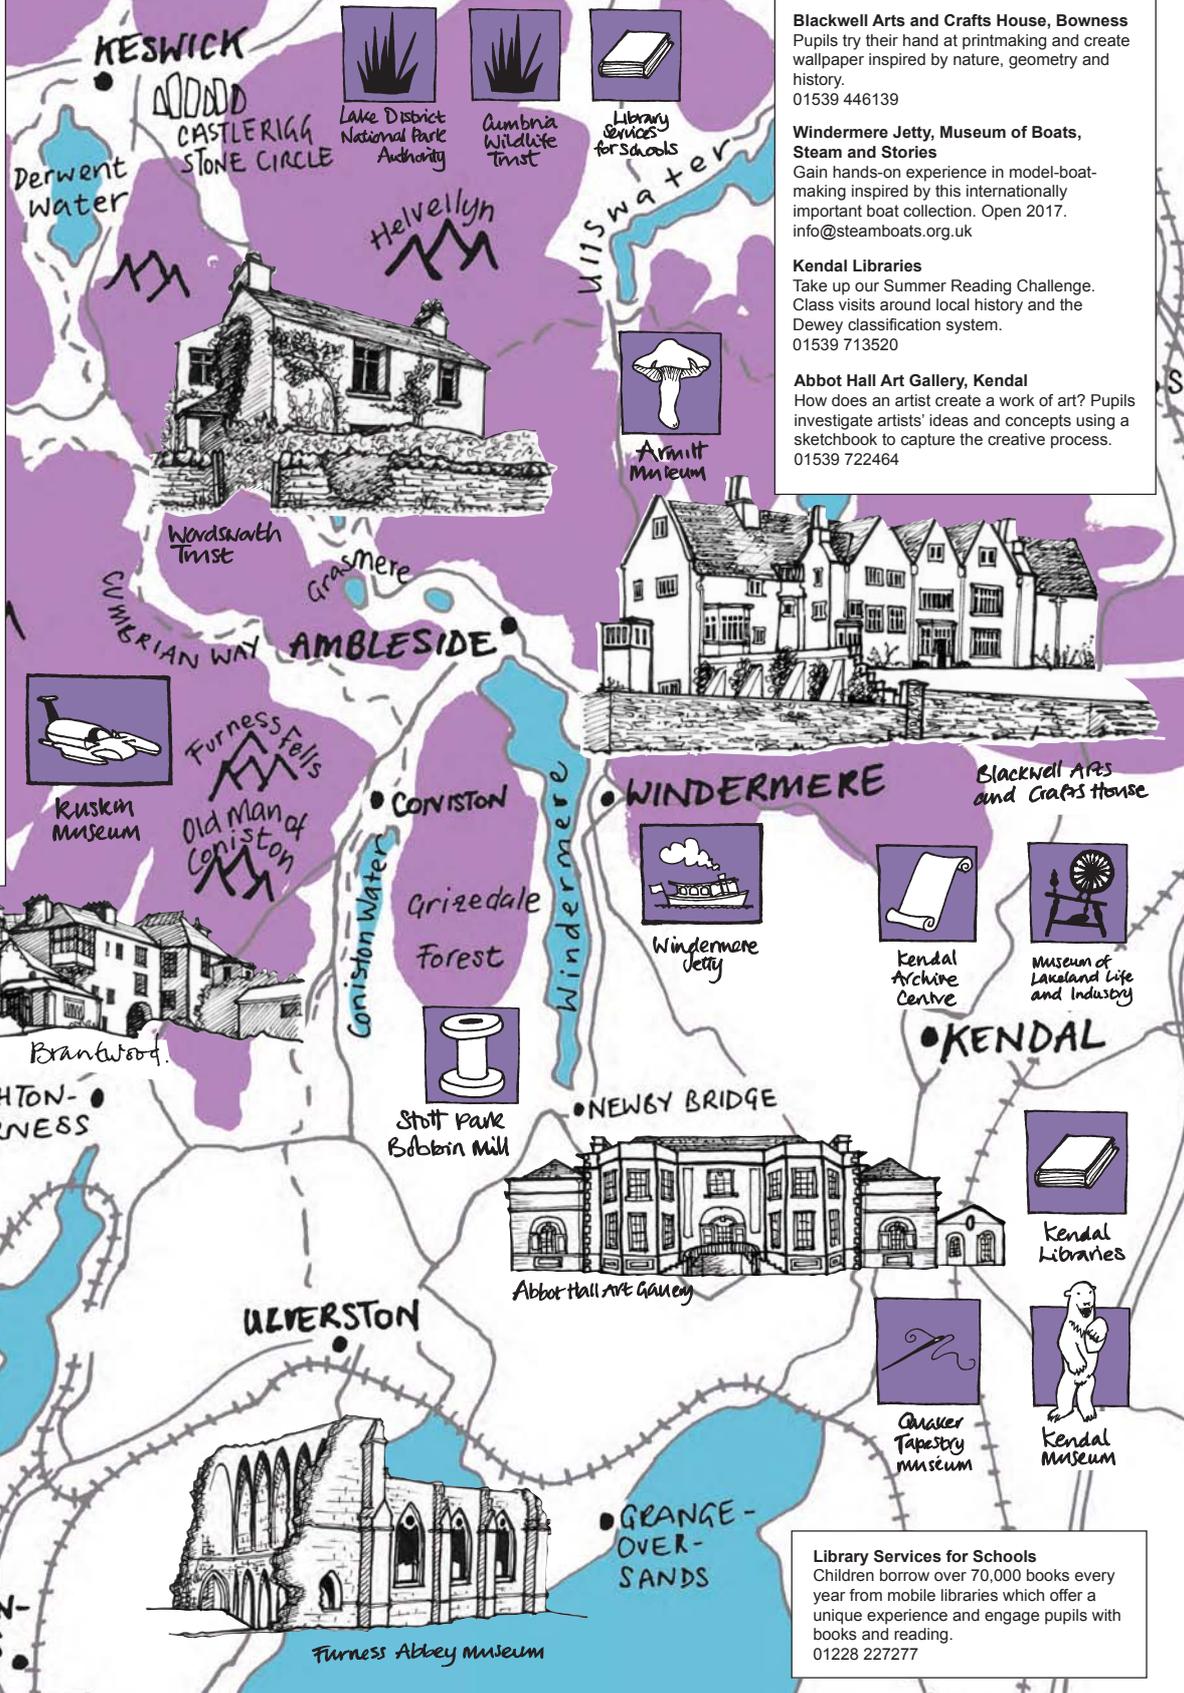

Discover history and architecture within the impressive remains of the abbey, chapter house and cloister buildings.
01229 823420

Lake District National Park Authority

Get inspired by the Lake District's landscape and cultural heritage with a unique mix of curriculum focussed learning opportunities and outdoor adventures.
01539 446601

Cumbria Wildlife Trust

Field trips led by wildlife tutors offer fantastic learning outside the classroom experiences.
01539 816300

Blackwell Arts and Crafts House, Bowness
Pupils try their hand at printmaking and create wallpaper inspired by nature, geometry and history.
01539 446139

Windermere Jetty, Museum of Boats, Steam and Stories

Gain hands-on experience in model-boat-making inspired by this internationally important boat collection. Open 2017.
info@steamboats.org.uk

Kendal Libraries

Take up our Summer Reading Challenge. Class visits around local history and the Dewey classification system.
01539 713520

Abbot Hall Art Gallery, Kendal

How does an artist create a work of art? Pupils investigate artists' ideas and concepts using a sketchbook to capture the creative process.
01539 722464

Blackwell Arts and Crafts House

01539 446139

Kendal Archive Centre

Museum of Lakeland Life and Industry

Kendal Libraries

Kendal Museum

Quaker Tapestry Museum

Library Services for Schools
Children borrow over 70,000 books every year from mobile libraries which offer a unique experience and engage pupils with books and reading.
01228 227277

Kendal Museum
Travel the globe and experience the natural and man-made world - from mummies to polar bears.
01539 815597

Quaker Tapestry Museum, Kendal
Investigate history, art and design through drama, drawing and stitching to bring Quaker stories to life.
01539 722975

Museum of Lakeland Life and Industry, Kendal
Scour the archives and collections and make crafted textiles to learn how Kendal became a thriving wool town.
01539 722464

Kendal Archive Centre
Footage of the Kendal Home Guard brings British history to life. Pupils examine local documents and try clothing from WWII.
01539 713540