

Curious Cumbria

SUPPORTING LEARNING TO INSPIRE PUPILS

EXPLORE West Cumbria's CULTURAL LEARNING HOTSPOTS

Soldiers in Silloth

Using toy soldiers to understand uniforms, equipment, manufacture, materials, sculpture, design, childhood and play.
01697 332946

Senhouse Roman Museum, Maryport

Pupils interrogate the relationship between invaders and native communities in the Romans v Celts session, together with craft activities and free loan boxes.
01900 816168

Maryport Maritime Museum

Travel through time with a guided harbour trail and compare the past with the present.
01900 813738

Cumbria Wildlife Trust

Field trips led by wildlife tutors offer fantastic learning outside the classroom experiences.
01228 829570

Soldiers in Silloth

Cumbria Wildlife Trust

Wordsworth House

Wordsworth House, Cockermouth
What was it like growing up 250 years ago? Pupils immerse themselves in distinctive period rooms and gardens.
01900 824805

Helena Thompson Museum, Workington

Explore the industrial heritage of Workington in the Victorian era through hands-on learning sessions with role play, artefacts and activities.
01900 64040

Library Services for Schools

Children borrow over 70,000 books every year from mobile libraries which offer a unique experience and engage pupils with books and reading.
01228 227277

Senhouse Roman Museum

Maryport Maritime Museum

The Beacon Museum

Haig Pit

Cumbria Archives, Whitehaven

Cumbria Libraries West

Rosehill Theatre

Cumbria Archives, Whitehaven

Ignite pupil's enthusiasm for British history with locally focussed workshops about WWI and the Victorians.
01946 506420

Cumbria Libraries,

Avoid the summer reading dip and take up our Summer Reading Challenge. Class visits around local history and the Dewey classification system.
01900 706174

The Beacon Museum, Whitehaven

Copeland's heritage is revealed through fun role-play activities featuring local heroes and pirates.
01946 592302

Haig Pit Museum, Whitehaven

The team works directly with schools and children with additional needs to create bespoke educational sessions.
01946 599949

Rosehill Theatre

Inspiring children to experience theatre and music and encouraging them to create their own art.
01946 692422

Millom Heritage Discovery Centre

The Dock Museum

Library Services for Schools

Millom Heritage Discovery Centre

Uncover the industrial heritage of Millom through activities and object handling and explore how this relates to life in Cumbria today.
01229 772555

The Dock Museum, Barrow

WWII multi-sensory experience of a Blitz-era air raid in a real Anderson Shelter.
01229 876400

