

Curious Cumbria

SUPPORTING LEARNING TO INSPIRE PUPILS

EXPLORE North Cumbria's CULTURAL LEARNING HOTSPOTS

Tullie House Museum and Art Gallery, Carlisle

Explore life in Roman Carlisle with five mystery characters using Roman artefacts and costumes to bring history to life. 01228 618718

Carlisle Cathedral

Bespoke sessions use artefacts, costumes and role-play to understand the Cathedral, ritual and the people who worked here. 01228 548151

Cumbria's Museum of Military Life, Carlisle

Hands-on interactive sessions using military objects and photographs to understand history and conflict. 01228 532774

Carlisle Archive Centre

Discover the documentary heritage of Cumbria using original archival material linked to literacy and local studies. 01228 227285

Carlisle Castle, English Heritage

The Expert-led Discovery Visits offer a fun and engaging way to explore the castle's history across the key stages. 03703 330606

Carlisle Library

Avoid the summer reading dip and take up our Summer Reading Challenge. Class visits focus on local history and the Dewey classification system. 01228 227310

Blencathra Field Studies Council, Threlkeld

Learning sessions provide a combination of adventure, teamwork, environmental discovery and awareness-raising. 01768 779601

Library Services for Schools

Children borrow over 70,000 books every year from mobile libraries which offer a unique experience and engage pupils with books and reading. 01228 227277

Carlisle Libraries

Cumbria's Museum Military Life

Carlisle Archive Centre

Carlisle Castle

Blencathra Field Studies Council

The Derwent Pencil Museum

Theatre by the Lake

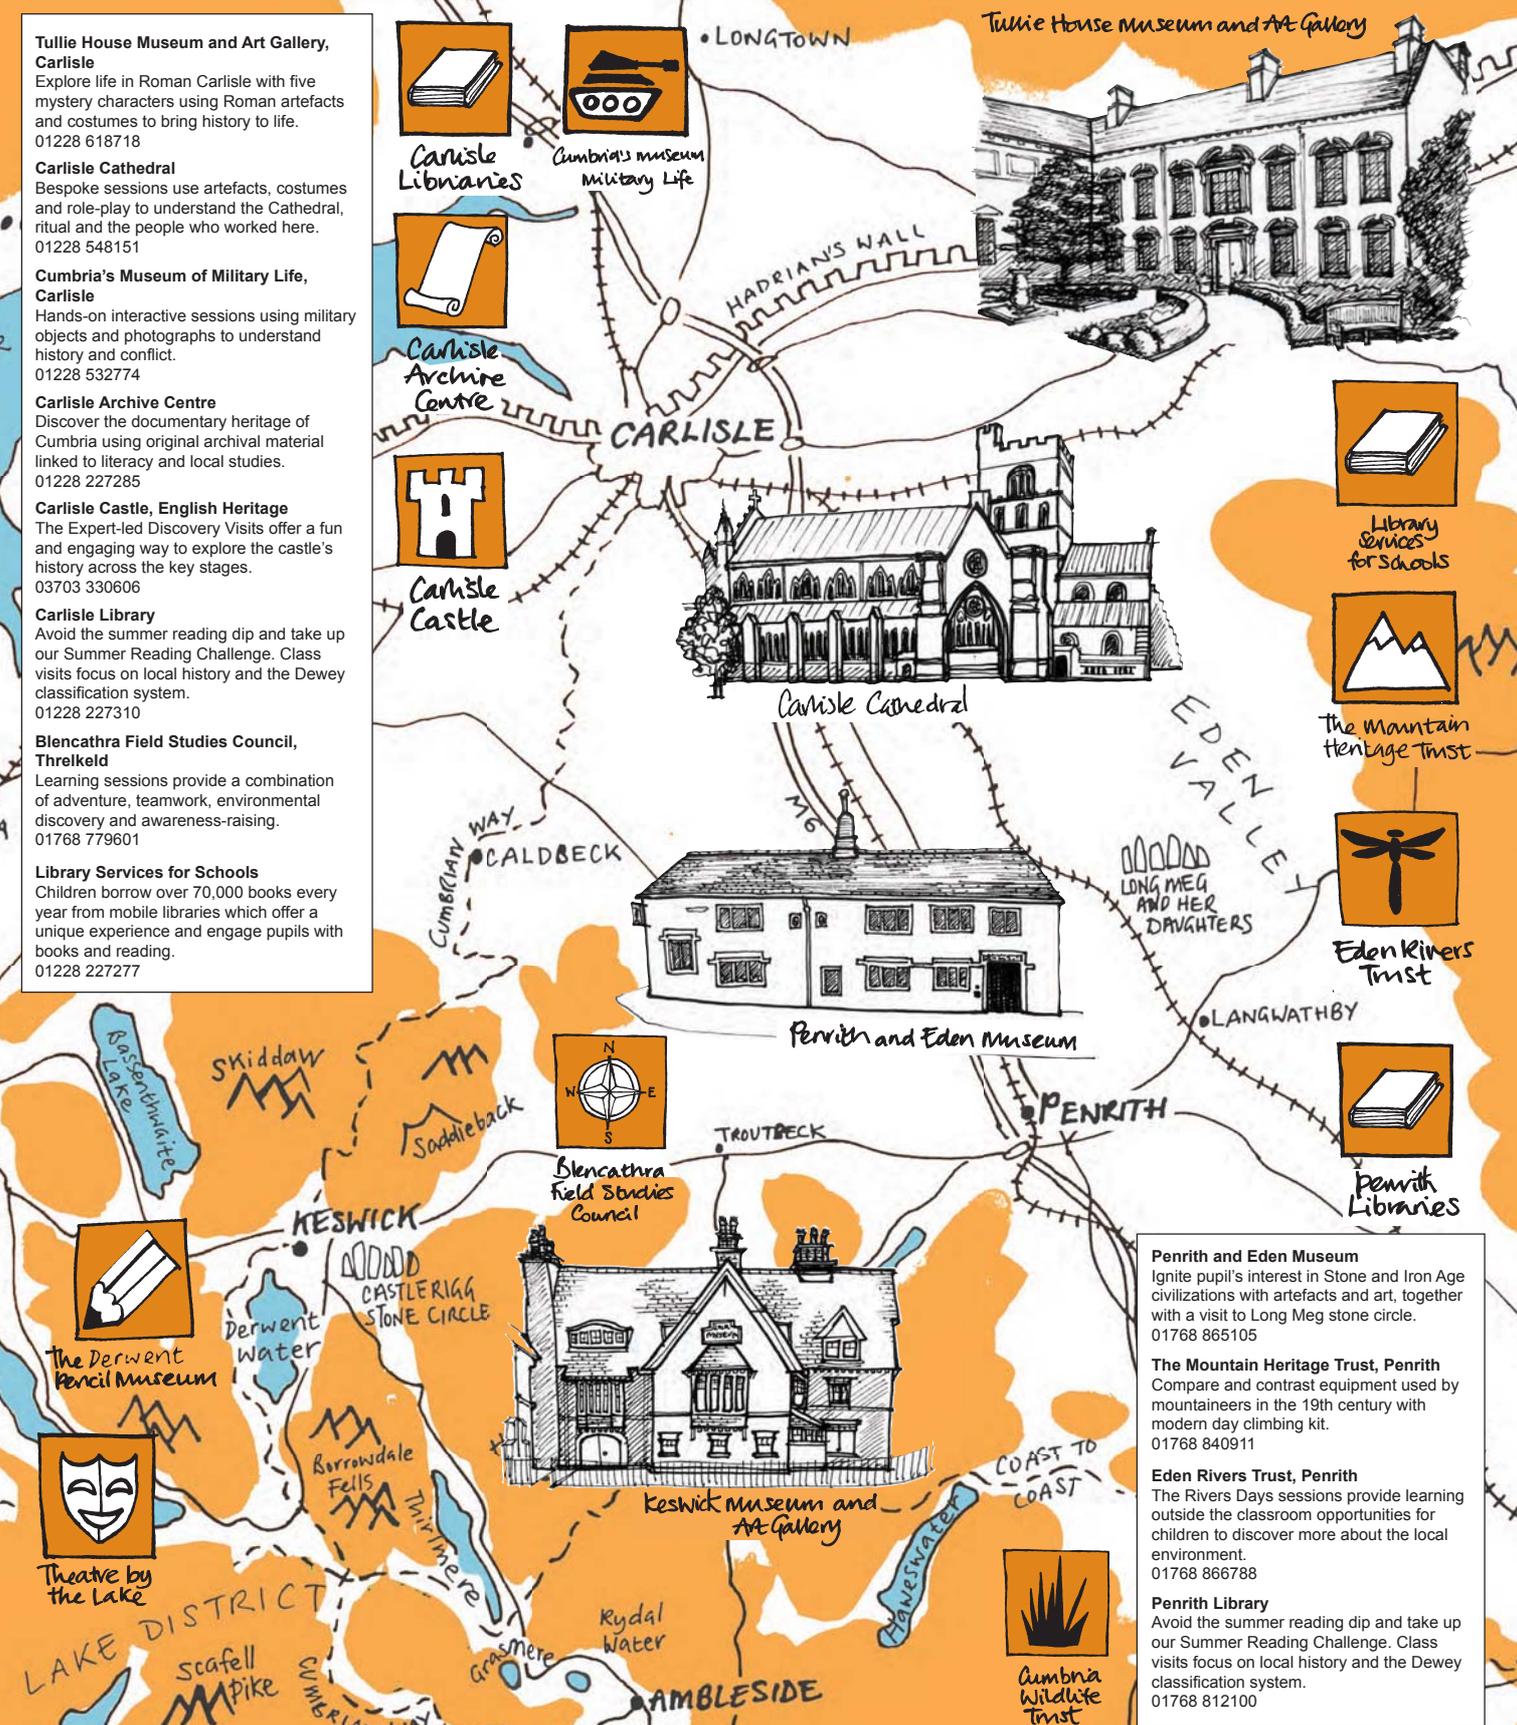

Cumbria Wildlife Trust

Keswick Museum and Art Gallery
Pupils use compasses, grid references and key symbols to learn about maps, relief models and the Lake District. 01768 773263

The Derwent Pencil Museum, Keswick
Pupils use mixed media, watercolour pencils, brushes and sponges to unleash their creativity to learn different drawing techniques. 01768 773626

Cumbria Wildlife Trust
Field trips led by wildlife tutors offer fantastic learning outside the classroom experiences. 01228 829570

Theatre by the Lake, Keswick
Pupils enjoy backstage tours, work placements and many play productions appear on school syllabuses; with performances for school visits over Christmas. 01768 774411

Penrith and Eden Museum
Ignite pupil's interest in Stone and Iron Age civilizations with artefacts and art, together with a visit to Long Meg stone circle. 01768 865105

The Mountain Heritage Trust, Penrith
Compare and contrast equipment used by mountaineers in the 19th century with modern day climbing kit. 01768 840911

Eden Rivers Trust, Penrith
The Rivers Days sessions provide learning outside the classroom opportunities for children to discover more about the local environment. 01768 866788

Penrith Library
Avoid the summer reading dip and take up our Summer Reading Challenge. Class visits focus on local history and the Dewey classification system. 01768 812100